A Horse-stealer

A travelling man with four or five horses for sale, (which were driven by a mulatto man rather elderly looking, and a short muscular made fellow) sold a young bay horse to a man for forty four dollars, during a rainy night from the falls bridge to the red house tavern in Fairfax county, on the 4th inst. by the name of Aaron Miller, of said county; which horse had been some days before taken from a waggon at Cameron, but was pursued and recovered from the thief who obtained the warrant and got off. He said his name was Peter Johnson, from Elk Run, appeared to be about 35 years of age, well looking, with very red hair and whiskers and was well dressed; he said he had been selling horses in George-Town and was going to Leesburg—he had a mule and two white matched grey horses in the drove. He also sold or exchanged a loose thick overcoat, which appeared since to have been taken from Crawford's tavern shortly before the 19th. If any person can discover or trace either of the above named dealers, thereby leading to an acquisition of them, by calling on or by writing to Mr. Snowden, the Printer of this paper, shall receive Ten Dollars reward therefor.—He took the Centreville road from Wren's tavern.

april 14.

Two Hundred Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, living at Cedar Run, King George county, Virginia, on the 23d ultimo,

A BRIGHT mulatto man named Charles Darling, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high, well, though not very stoutly made, a very light complexion, has straight hair and whiskers nearly cut off, by a recent barber and accustomed to waiting in a gentleman's family, when spoken to he generally appears confused and directed to stuttering—had on or took with him a blue round jacket with red cape and cuffs, a pair of cloth, Surveyor's pantaloons, a pair of boots, and black handkerchief round his neck; he will probably be well dressed, as he has a number of good [illegible] and will change them frequently. Whoever will apprehend the said fellow and secure him in any jail in this state, so that his master may get him again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home, all reasonable charges, besides the reward given by law.

MESSAGE

From the president of the United States, in compliance with a resolution of the 26th ultimo, requesting such information as he may have received, touching the impressment of American seamen, which has been communicated to the department of state, since the last report made to the senate, in virtue of a resolution of that body of the thirtieth of November, 1807.

To the house of representatives of the U. States.

I transmit to the house a report of the secretary of state, complying with their resolution of the 26th of March.

JAMES MADISON.

April 4, 1810.

REPORT.

Agreeably to a resolution of the house of representatives of the 26th of March, requesting the president of the United States to cause to be laid before that house, such information as he may have received, touching the impressment of American seamen, which has been communicated to the department of state, since the last report made to the senate, in virtue of a resolution of that body, bearing date the 30th November, 1807, the secretary of state has the honor to report to the president, that accounts have been received at this department, exclusively of those reported by the agents of the United States, of the impressment of four hundred and sixty two seamen, from vessels under the American flag, into armed vessels under the British flag, since the period referred to; that of this number two hundred and thirty five are proved by documents in this office to be citizens of the United States, and the most of the rest claim also to be American citizens. The secretary has likewise the honor to submit the abstract marked A, of all the returns received at this department from general Lyman, the agent of the United States, in London, exhibiting a statement of all the applications made by him to the British government, for the discharge of American seamen, from the 1st of October, 1806, to the 31st of March, 1809, and shewing the result of these applications—— The returns from the agents of the United States, in the West Indies are very incomplete; those actually received from them since the report to the senate, containing an account of forty-two impressments only, from American into British vessels. The secretary submits herewith an extract of a letter from G. T. Ladico, marked B, acting as consular agent of the United States at Port Mahon, on the subject embraced by the resolution of the house.

Respectfully submitted,

R. SMITH.

Department of State, April 4, 1810.

Extract of a letter from G. T. Ladico, consular agent of the United States, at Port Mahon, to the Secretary of State, dated December 10th, 1809.

"I find myself under the necessity to inform you that several American seamen, impressed and detained in some English men of war, have applied to me in order to obtain from their respective commanders their liberty, that they might return to the United States. The want of a consul general in the Balear Islands, since the departure of John Martin Baker, Esquire, late consul, who made me the honor to appoint me vice consul in this island and my zeal for whatever concerns the advantage of the citizens of the United States, in every regard, have induced me to officiate with admiral lord Collingwood on account of said claims, which answer, dated Port Mahon, 4th Dec, 1809—

"All applications relative to subjects of the U. States, who may be serving in the fleet under my command should pass thro' the American minister in London, before I take cognizance of them."

BY LAST NIHT'S MAIL.

NEW YORK, April 12.

Late and Important News.

The ship Cincinnatus, captain Conklin, arrived here last evening in 30 days from London. The editors of the New York Gazette are indebted to Mr. Colt and Mr. Austin, for London papers to the 10th of last month inclusive. It will be seen by the following extracts, that there is every prospect of a speedy adjustment of all differences between the United States and G. Britain; and, (it was believed in England) consequently a war with France.

The following article from the London Morning Chronicle of the 7th ultimo is believed by the passengers in the Cincinnatus, to be correct:

"It is currently reported, that the negociations which have for some time been conducted by the marquis Wellesley and Mr. Pinkney, has happily terminated in an amicable adjustment of differences between this country and the United States of America. The John Adams frigate has been detained to carry out the treaty, which will not be made known until the ratifications are exchanged. It is said that the despatches of the American minister are to be forwarded to the frigate to-morrow.

The frigate John Adams, it was supposed, sailed from Portsmouth on the 15th March for America, touch at Havre for a bearer of despatches. The Juno, Bates, with duplicates of Mr. Pinkney's despatches sailed about the same time for Boston.

It was said in England that no minister would at present be sent out, as it was supposed Mr. Pinkney's arrangement would supercede the necessity of any further negociation.

It was the general opinion that there would be a change in the ministry. In several divisions in parliament, ministers had been in the minority. Lord Chatham has resigned.

March 8.

The earl of Chatham has resigned the post of master general of the ordnance. In this he has acted with proper deference to the vote of the house of commons. His lordship's resignation was tendered to his majesty at the levee yesterday, and accepted. The earl of Harrington has been talked of as his lordship's successor; but we must confess that in any arrangement to which lord Chatham's resignation will give rise, we should be glad to find the return to power of lord Melville, of Mr. Canning and of Mr. Huskisson, included. The union of such men with Mr. Percival, with the marquis of Wellesley, and other members of the present cabinet, would be hailed with the greatest pleasure by all classes of his majesty's subjects.—Courier.

In addition to the important articles to which we have already alluded, there is a note to the American minister, Mr. Armstrong, without any date. In this note the French minister represents the Berlin and Milan decrees as having been the consequences of our orders in council, tho' every one knows that our orders in council were issued after the Berlin decree. The act by which France is excluded from American ports as well as Great Britain, is considered as unjust against France, "the United States not having any ground of complaint against her!!" The French minister concludes by saying, that if "the minister of America is prepared to engage, that the American vessels shall not submit to the English orders in Nov. 1807, nor to any decree of blockade, unless that blockade be real, he will conclude any description of convention tending to renew the treaty of commerce with America, and comprehending all the measures calculated to consolidate the commerce and prosperity of America."

There is every reason, however, to believe, that America will not fall into the snare France wishes to lay for her; but that, acting upon her true interest, she will see that her security and honor will best be consulted by making peace with Great Britain.

A communication we received yesterday from Lisbon speaks in more melancholy terms of the prospect in Portugal than some of our other letters.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, a messenger was despatched from the house of the American minister, with his excellency's answer to the last dispatches from his government.

LONDON, March 10.

We received this morning Cadiz papers to the 25th. The enemy have yet made no serious attack upon Cadiz or the Isle of Leon, and the Spaniards are actively improving the means of defence. The French wish to carry on an active commerce of flags of truce. They send in proclamations and addresses, which the governor orders to be burnt by the hands of the common hangman.

CADIZ, Feb. 18.

"In the night of the 16th, and during the whole of the 17th, we were employed in constructing, under protection of the boats, an advanced battery on the right, in the situation called El Salero, which did considerable damage to the enemy. The boats and old batteries every day occasion a continual loss to the enemy of men and horses. According to the last accounts, which may be relied on, there are in Puerto Real 3000 French, almost all the infantry, with 6 brass pieces, 24 pounders. They entered on the evening of the 16th by the Oamino de la Isla, without artillery.

February 23.

In the mornidg of the 21st were burnt by the hands of the hangman, the papers and despatches brought by the flag of truce on the 20th. If the enemy thinks to conquer thus by proclamations and insidious propositions, he is deceived. It is impossible to corrupt the governor, or to change the public opinion, which is firmly founded in justice, and supported by the general wish of the people." Gazetto del Commercio de Cadiz, Feb. 23.

DRESDEN, Feb. 14.

An Austrian courier, proceeding to Berlin, has brought the agreeable news of a suspension of arms between Russia and the Ottoman Porte. These two courts have accepted the powerful mediation of the emperor Napoleon. It is said that since the Porte decided to make peace, the English ambassador (Mr. Adair) not thinking himself safe at Constantinople, precipitately embarked for Sicily.

LONDON, March 1.

FRENCH DECREE.

The following is the decree lately issued by the French government, on the subject of the export commerce of that country.

Palace of the Thuilleries, Feb. 16.

Napoleon emperor of the French, &c.

"We have declared and do declare as follows:

Art. 1. No vessel with a license shall henceforth be permitted to clear out from our ports unless half her cargo consist of wine and brandy.

Art. 2. Licensed vessels which shall have already begun to take in their freight, are excepted from this regulation.

The ministers of France, &c. are required, &c.

March 2.

The Roman territory is to be divided into to two departments, which are to send deputies to the legislative assembly. It is also to give title to the imperial hereditary prince, who will be denominated king of Rome.——Provision is, at the same time made for the support of the future Popes, who however, will possess no temporial authority.

March 5.

It was determined on Saturday by the board of trade, after a conference with a deputation of merchants traiding to the Brazils, to garnt licenses for the free exportation of cotton to all parts and places not declared in a state of blockade.

PHILADELPHIA, April 13.

LATEST FROM CADIZ.

Arrived here yesterday, ship South-Carolina, Capt. Page, from Cadiz, which place he left on the 12th of February.

Cadiz had a supply of water on hand, sufficient for five months, and was garrisoned by about 20,000 men. The inhabitants and soldiery entertained no fears of the place being captured, and were in high spirits. The French attempted to bombard the town, but their shot and shells fell short. The Spanish ships of war were in perfect security in the outer harbor. The French, in attempting a pass, which, if gained, would have facilitated their entrance into the isle of Leon, were repulsed with considerable slaughter by the Spaniards, and driven back. The whole number of French troops before Cadiz was about 20,000, and altogether in the province of Andalusia, 50,000. The French, in re-constructing the forts destroyed by the British troops previous to their arrival, finding themselves incommoded by the fire from the Spanish and British vessels of war, forced a number of Spanish prisoners to work on them. Upon which admiral Purves sent a message to the French generals and informed them, that for every Spaniard who might thus be killed by the fire from the British and Spanish shipping, he would hang up a Frenchman. We have not understood whether this threat has had the desired effect. British transports were daily arriving with troops, arms, ammunition and provisions.

We have no account from Blake and Romana, who must be somewhere in the interior with considerable forces, as likewise the Duke del Parque. Although the present affairs of Spain look gloomy, yet a change of fortune may take place, when least expected. Hannibal was once at the gates of Rome; yet Rome survived, and at last destroyed the country of Hannibal.

JUST RECEIVED,

A handsome assortment of Spring Goods.

ALSO,

50 bags coffee, (green.)
70 boxes best Spanish segars,
At very reduced prices, for sale at Mrs. CRAYCROFT'S, Fairfax street.

DOCTOR B. FENDALL,

Regular bred Surjeon Dentist,

AND who has been in practice for near THIRTY YEARS, has just arrived in Alexandria, and may be seen and consulted at Brook's tavern, at any time during his continuance in it. The earlier applications are made to the Doctor by those who feel disposed to employ him as a Dentist the better, as his continuance in Alexandria is very uncertain. Those ladies and gentlemen, in Alexandria, who find it inconvenient to wait on the Doctor, he will readily attend, on the shortest notice.

Dr. Fendall cures the scurvy in the gums, be it ever so inveterate, in a short time, twenty four hours at farthest; fastens loose teeth by making the gums grow up to them, renders the teeth white and beautiful; prevents their decay; keeps such as are so from becoming worse, even to old age; fills up those that are hollow with gold, with foil or lead which will not only render them useful, but prevent their aching and further decay; extracts teeth and stumps with ease; makes and fixes artificial teeth. His Columbian Antiscorbutic Dentifrice, for preserving the teeth, gums, sockets, &c. and superior he thinks, both in elegance and efficacy, to any other, is still sold by the doctor.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FRIDAY, April 13.

[CONCLUDED.]

[Taken for the Alexandria Gazette.]

Mr. Taylor answered Mr. Love, when the committee rose reported progress and asked leave to sit again. This leave was not granted, and the bill now lies on the table to be taken up by the house.

The engrossed bill for the relief of Margaret Lapsey and others, was read a third time and passed. Adjourned.

Saturday, April 14.

Mr. Newton from the committee of commerce and manufactures reported a bill for the relief of George Armroyd, & Co. Referred to a committee of the whole on Monday next.

A communication from the secretary of the treasury was read, covering a statement of monies received, &c. made agreeably to an order of the house. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Nelson reported a bill to alter and amend the militia law of the District of Columbia. Made the order of the day for Monday next.

The house proceeded to consider the amendments of the senate to the bill relative to the post-office establishment. The amendments had been all agreed to by the two houses, except one. A committee of conference was appointed on the part of the house to meet a committee of the senate, respecting the amendment about which there is a disagreement.

The house, on motion of Mr. Eppes, then resolved itself into committee of the whole, on the bill to lay additional duties on goods, wares and merchandize imported into the United States—Mr. BASSETT in the chair.

Mr. Eppes explained the views of the committee of ways and means in bringing forward this bill; and the necessity of laying additional duties for the purpose of making up deficiencies in the revenue.

Mr. Randolph moved to lay the bill on the table for the purpose of taking up the resolution to reduce the army and navy. The question on this motion was lost, 41 to 51.

Mr. Eppes moved to fill the first blank with five per cent. so as to lay five per cent. additional duty on all ad valorem articles imported.

Mr. Randolph then moved to have the committee rise and report progress. Negatived—43 to 51.

Mr. Quincey moved to strike out the first section of the bill. This motion was negatived.

Mr. Randolph renewed his motion to take up his resolution to reduce the army and navy. This motion was again negatived, 51 to 55.

Mr. Randolph then spoke at great length against the motion to fill the blank, and at the close of his observations moved that the committee rise and report progress. On request of Mr. Eppes Mr. Randolph withdrew his motion; and Mr. Eppes proceeded to answer Mr. Randolph's observations.

After Mr. Eppes had finished, Mr. Randolph rose to make some explanations. After him followed Mr. Macon.

The committee then rose, reported progress and had leave to sit again.

Twenty Dollars Reward,

Will be paid to any person who will deliver to me in Madison county,

Negro BILLY,

WHO eloped on the 24th of last month. He is a likely fellow, about 30 years of age, 5 feet eight or nine inches high, remarkably straight, and has a scar on one of his cheeks, I believe the left, occasioned by a cut; he is a cooper by trade, and served his apprenticeship at the Occoquan Mills, and was purchased some years ago by Mr. Thos. Richards, of a Mrs. Waggoner, who lived in the neighborhood of that place. He was seen eight days ago on his way to Alexandria, where he said he was going to get employment. I think it highly probably he may be found in the neighborhood of the above Mills.

RESPECTULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has opened a House of Entertainment in the town of Alexandria, on Prince street, next door to Mr. J. Relishes of various kinds may be had at all times at the shortest notice.

April 7.

FOR SALE,

THE Long Glades, (where the white house tavern and store lately stood) containing 1580 acres of land, situate three miles from the great falls of Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, on the post road from Alexandria and the city of Washington, twenty miles from the former and fourteen from the latter.

It can be divided so as to give an equal proportion of woodland, of which it has sufficiency to each part. There is no tract of the same size in the county that is better watered, that has a larger proportion of Meadow land, nor no one in the state on which Plaister of Paris answers better.

Hay meets with as ready sale as at Alexandria or Washington.

There are on it two Mill Seats, a Stone Quarry, and an excellent situation for a Distillery.

I will give a bargain in one half or the whole of the above property, on a liberal credit, or receive approved property in this district in payment.

ALSO,

A Farm in Loudoun, containing 214 acres, adjoining the lands of Ludwell Lee, esq. on the south side of Goose Creek, five miles from Leesburg.

It has comfortable improvements, is well timbered and watered

ALSO,

A tract of Land, containing 316 acres, in the district of Columbia, between 7 and eight miles from Alexandria, and about four from George Town.

More than half this land is in valuable timber, has a large quarry of building stone and is well watered. The meadow land is bounded above a mile by four mile run. The road from George Town and Washington goes through it.

The improvements are indifferent. It has several elegant sites for building that command a prospect of Washington and the adjacent country.

For this and the farm in Loudoun I will give a generous credit or exchange them for property in Alexandria.
